

"The Doctrine of the World"

When we rear a generation to believe that they are perfect, that loving yourself is virtuous, that their heart is always right, and that nothing is more important than being happy, we have brought up a generation to reject God. When (or if) they arrive at the church building on Sunday, the Gospel will sound strange to them because it contradicts everything that family, friends, and society have said in the home, in the workplace, and everywhere else. Friends, we must be consistent in our instruction. Below is a list of common teachings that directly assault the Word of God.

They say, "You can choose whether you want to be a male, female, or whatever you want."

God says, "I made you male and female" (Gen. 5:2).

They say, "Marry whomever you want! Same sex, different sex, it's what you want!"

God says, "Marriage is between one man and one woman" (Gen. 2:24)

They say, "Follow your heart."

God says, "Follow me" Mt. (16:24).

They say, "There are many ways to get to Heaven, just be a good person."

God says, "Jesus is the only way to Heaven" (Jn. 14:6).

They say, "Truth is relative. What's true for you doesn't mean it's true for everyone else. Speak your truth."

God says, "My Word is Truth" (Jn. 17:17).

They say, "Be tolerant and let people do whatever they want."

God says, "Love Me and love people" (Mk. 12:29-31)

Paul wrote to the young evangelist, "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance with their own desires" (2 Tim. 4:3, LSB).

The falling away is precisely what is happening. When the Lord told us to love Him and to love others, He did not mean to neglect Him or His statues. Can we genuinely admit to loving other people if we fear taking a stand and telling them that they are wrong?

Tennessee Liebowitz was recently involved in a dirt bike accident. He broke his collar bone. Marianna was with him but he protected her and she only had a few scrapes. Thank you, Lord! Keep Tennessee in your prayers for a quick recovery.
