

"IT'S WITH ME ALWAYS"

I was contemplating the things people do for a cause. Many people are highly dedicated and committed to supporting whatever cause it may be. What got me thinking about this was I read an article where a woman was talking about the rubber bracelet around her wrist; you know, the ones that are different colors and usually have the name of a cause or a slogan on them. She made the statement that the bracelet often got caught on things, annoyed her in the shower, clashed with about every outfit she wore, and she was constantly pushing it up or down on her wrist. She went on to say that she would never remove the bracelet because she wore it as a sign of support for a dear loved one

That got me to thinking, what would happen if people had that same dedication to the word of God? People wear bracelets, ribbons, pins, certain colors, etc. in support of those who have been afflicted with life changing diseases. Many people post messages on social media to share to keep a cause near and dear to them in people's minds. There are multiple functions to raise money to find cures. The love and compassion of people can be amazing!

Friends, we all are afflicted with the disease of sin. There is a cure. Jesus died on the cross to take away all our sins and He rose from the grave to conquer death so we too could leave the grave to live in heaven for eternity. What if every Christian wore their faith in a way that everybody they met would see it? I mean if every Christian allowed the love of God to show in their lives at all times without a reason, other than the unending gratitude in their hearts that they are saved, we could go a long way in showing the world the solution to their worst problem!

God's grace allows us to live free from the guilt of sin; that is the cure. God's word tells us what we need to do to get and stay spiritually healthy; that's the prescription. Just like getting physically healthy, doing what the Great Physician says is up to us!

It is just matter of dedication and trust. As we dedicate ourselves to God and His word, we begin to develop a trust in God because we know He is giving us all we need to live an abundant life that glorifies Him and gives us an eternal home in heaven. Believe me, it is a great cause to commit to!
